*Chosen to 2007 Super Lawyers

The core of Anderson & Jones is its two principals—Scott Anderson and Harry Jones. Anderson, a native Nebraskan and the son of a small-town banker, understands the challenges of the business world. A Texas certified public accountant, Anderson's experience gives him a specialized command of the business and legal aspects of commercial litigation. He has extensive knowledge of all areas of business law, such as insurance coverage and premium dispute issues, employment agreements, covenants not to compete and severance agreements. Anderson has served as director of many boards, including the State Board of Texas Real Estate Forum Committee.

Harry Jones, a native Texan, is the son of former missionaries to Africa. He is board-certified in labor and employment law and has expertise in all types of commercial litigation. He is experienced in all areas of employment litigation, which includes sexual harassment, discrimination suits, labor union contests and retaliation/wrongful discharge claims. Jones has been successful in defending private companies against claims by the Teamsters, the EEOC and class action trial lawyers.

A personal interest in all the firm's clients is at the heart of Anderson & Jones. The firm appreciates and understands the toll

“THE LAW OFFICES OF ANDERSON & JONES, PLLC IS STEADFAST IN ITS MISSION: TO EXCEL IN THE PROTECTION AND SERVICE OF OUR CLIENTS’ INTERESTS.”

The Anderson & Jones partnership has flourished for 14 years, through thick and thin, in crisis and in victory, because of the steadfast trust, fixed principles, values and loyalty that bind the partners. Anderson & Jones recruits like-minded attorneys and builds relationships with its clients based on the same basic tenets. The attorneys of Anderson & Jones earn their clients' trust with attention to their needs, thoughtful analysis of their legal situations and accessibility. Anderson & Jones lawyers strive to become trusted advisors to their clients, not merely providers of legal services.

litigation takes on a business. Anderson & Jones does not follow a set “formula” and a client's case is not treated as a mere “file.” Whether a client is a publicly traded giant or a small businessman, each is treated with the same respect and given access to all the resources Anderson & Jones has to offer.
